

German Mass

3. Gospel and Creed

J. Ph. Neumann, D. P. McLeod

F. Schubert

♩ = 80

B♭ Clarinet

Piano

p

F

B♭

C

F

F

Dm/A

p

Cre - a - tion lay in form - less dark, ac - cord - ing to the Man's spir - it lay in deep - est night, de - lud - ed in the
This war - ning gave the ho - ly one, "Not by your faith a - O lend us strength and cour - age to see no - thing but the 4

B♭

C

F

B♭

C

F

f

F

G

Book. Then spoke the Lord, "Let there be light!" He spoke and there was dark. The Sav - ior came and there was light! And then clear day broke lone, nor by ful - fill - ment of your tasks can you be sure of way which our re - deem - er took, that we may try to fol - low

f

8

p

f

p

C

Gm

G/B

C

D/A

G/B

light! And life be - gins, and spreads a - round, and or - der is pro - out. The light of Je - sus' ho - ly word woke life both near and Heav'n." O give us all true pi - e - ty, and give us too, O
it. Your gos - pel mes - sage, let it be for us a heav'n - ly

p

f

p

12

claimed; and ev' - ry - where, yes, all a - round, come ris - ing praise and far; and all our hearts now beat in thanks, and sing to praise the God, a lov - ing heart, that glad and true al - ways o - beys Your guide, and by Your mer - cy lead us, Lord, in to Your king - dom's thanks, come ris - ing praise and thanks.

16

 Lord, and sing to praise the Lord.
 law, al - ways o - beys Your law.
 bliss, in to Your king - dom's bliss.