

In dulci jubilo

H. Suso, P. Dearmer

J. Klug, J. S. Bach

"Now this same angel came up to the Servant [Suso] brightly, and said that God had sent him down to him, to bring him heavenly joys amid his sufferings; adding that he must cast off all his sorrows from his mind and bear them company, and that he must also dance with them in heavenly fashion.

Then they drew the Servant by the hand into the dance, and the angel began a joyous song about the infant Jesus, which runs thus: In dulci jubilo ..." H. Suso, The Life of the Servant
