

When time seems short and death is near

G. W. Bethune

Ingen efter Guds rike står

Svenska koralboken, 1697

$\text{♩} = 80$

B♭ Cl.

Piano

F B♭ F Am C F

When time seems short, and death is near, and I am pressed by doubt and fear, and His name is Je - sus, and He died, for guil - ty sin - ners cru - ci - fied; con -
 If grace were bought, I could not buy; if grace were coined, no wealth have I; by
 I read God's ho - ly word, and find great truths which far trans - cend my mind and My faith is weak, but 'tis Thy gift; Thou canst my help - less soul up - lift, and

5

B♭ Dm Am Dm F Dm C F

sins, an o - ver - flow - ing tide, as sail my peace on ev' - ry side, this tent to die, that He might win their ran - som from the death of sin. No grace a - lone I draw my breath, held up from e - ver - last - ing death. Yet lit - tle do I know be - side of thought so high and deep and wide. This say, thy bonds of death are riv'n, thy sins by Me are all for - giv'n, and

9

Dm C Gm Dm A Dm C F

thought my re - fuge still shall be, I know my Sav - ior died for me.
 sin - ner worse than I can be, there fore I know He died for me.
 since I know His grace is free, I know the Sav - ior died for me.
 is my best the - o - lo - gy, I know the Sav - ior died for me.
 thou shalt live, from guilt set free; for I, thy Sav - ior died for thee.