

Why Art Thou Heavy-Hearted?

P. Gerhardt, H. Brueckner

Herzlich tut mich verlangen
Bb Clarinet + Piano

H. L. Hassler

♩ = 80

Am A7 Dm/A E Am E Am Am A7

Why art thou hea - vy - heart - ed? Why is thy soul weighed down? Cast off thy pain - ful Let Him the na - tions gov - ern as Lord of land and sea; then at His rule and His love at times may try thee and naught of com - fort lend, as if His help and All hail, thou who art faith - ful, the day will soon draw near when with a crown of 6

Dm/A E Am E Am Em Dm Csus4 C

bur - den and cease to fret and frown; thou art not He that rul - eth o'er guid - ance thou shalt as - ton - ished be; far, far a - bove thy think - ing His sol - ace He nev - er - more would send; but if de - spite thy tri - als thou glo - ry thou shalt in heav'n ap - pear; when God Him - self shall give thee the 11

F Dm E Am G/B C D G C Dm G E

heav - en, earth and hell; 'tis God whose throne en - dur - eth, who do - eth all things well.
coun - sel shall ap - pear when He the work hath fin - ished that caused thee need - less fear.
true to Him re - main, He will re - veal His pow - er and show His grace a - gain.
vic - tor's wreath and palm, and thou in yon - der man - sions shalt sing a joy - ful psalm.