

From God Shall Naught Divide Me

L. Helmbold, C. Winkworth

Von Gott will ich nicht lassen

Erfurt, 1572

$\text{♩} = 90$

B♭ Cl.

Piano

Gm Dm Gm A D Gm

From God shall naught di - vide me, for He is true for aye, and on my path will
If sor - row comes, I'll bear it in pa - tience and in trust; my Lord Him - self doth
What - e'er shall be His plea - sure is sure - ly best for me; He gave His dear - est

6

Dm Gm A D Cm F B♭

guide me, who else should of - ten stray; His ev - er bount - eous hand by share it, for He is true and just, and loves to bless us still; my treasure, that our weak hearts might see how good He is to us; and 11

Gm B♭ C D Gm A Dm Gm D Gm

night and day is heed - ful, and gives me what is need - ful, where - e'er I go or stand.
life and soul I owe them to Him who doth be - stow them, let Him do as He will.
in His Son He gave us what - e'er could bless and save us; praise Him who lov - eth thus!