

O Christ, Who Art the Light and Day

St. Ambrose, W. J. Copeland

Christe, qui lux es et dies

Latin melody, 600

$\text{♩} = 90$

B♭ Cl.

Piano

p

Gm B♭ Gm E♭

O Christ, who art the light and day, Thou driv - est
All - ho - ly Lord, in hum - ble prayer we ask to -
Our sleep be pure from sin - ful stain; let not the
A - sleep tho' wear - ied eyes may be, still keep the 4

B♭ Gm D F C F

night and gloom a - way; O Light of Light, whose night Thy watch - ful care. O grant us calm re - temp - ter van - tage gain or our un - guard - ed heart a - wake to Thee; let Thy right hand out -

7

B♭ C F Gm Gm D Gm

Word doth show the light of heav'n to us be - low.
pose in Thee, a qui - et night, from pe - rils free.
flesh sur - prise and make us guil - ty in Thine eyes.
stretched a - bove guard those who serve the Lord they love.