Soul of mine, to God a-wak-ing, and ye sen-ses, ev'-ry-one,
If from Thee I have de-part-ed, I re-turn a-gain to Thee, Grant that I in peace may slum-ber, find-ing sweet and qui-et rest.

come, your qui-et know-ing Thou art haunts for-sak-ing, tell what God for-me has done.
Let no cares my tend-er-heart-ed, since Thy Son a-toned for me.
soul en-cum-ber, keep it by Thy pre-sence blest.

He thru' this en-ti-re day has been with me on my way,
I can-not de-ny my guilt, but for me His blood was spilt,
Mind and bo-dy, child and wife, all my goods and all my life,

to my ma-ny wants at-tend-ing and all dan-gers from me fen-ding.
and Thy grace, all sin ex-ceed-ing, grants for-give-ness at His plead-ing.
friends and foes, a-like be-friend-ed, be this night to Thee com-mend-ed.
