Wait on your God, my soul in faith and stead - fast - ness. Once When, fi - nal - ly, you've drained in the cup you have been passed, Gone In this glad hope I rest, to You, my Lord, I pray. In

He will make you whole, your ex - it He will bless. When He has tried His is the pain con - tained, and joy will reign at last. In God's strong arms from You my life is blest, what ev - er comes my way. I'm long - ing for the chil - dren here He'll make all tri - als dis - ap - pear, gives for the sore cup earth - ly grief your soul finds heav - en - ly re - lief, and on your road that pro - mised land where joy and glad - ness nev - er end, when I will see with they in - gest a mea - sure shak - en, pressed. dark mine now lies the light of that God rules, will rise.

mine own eyes the the Lord that rules the the skies.
