1. May we pur - sue a life of pure in - teg - ri - ty.
2. Our eth - ics shi - ning forth like a bea - con by the sea,
3. And if you've walked a - way, if you've strayed far from the path,
4. As we pur - sue a life of pure in - teg - ri - ty,

5
May we be al - ways stead - fast as the eld - est tree.
of love and peace, com - pass - sion, em - braced di - ver - si - ty,
then all of life's a - noth - er chance to re - pent, turn back,
we know our task is hard, but we know that it must be,

Our bran - ches reach - ing out to suf - fer - ers who call,
of jus - tice and of free - dom, and op - por - tun - i - ty,
we wel - come you with arms wide back on the road to right,
we cov - e - nant to - geth - er, to stay a - ccount a - ble,

13
Our roots keep - ing us groun - ded; in val - ues, we stand tall.
as act - ed out in homes and world - wide com - mun i - ty.
we pledge to walk be - side you, help make your bur - den light.
to not just live for our - selves, but for the great - er whole.
