Let, O my soul, thy God di - rect thee, and trust in Him thru' all thy days;
Of what a - vail is all our sor-row? What pro-fit all our sighs and tears?
Be still, in faith and hope a - bid-ing, trust in thy God and be con - tent;

in ev' - ry dan - ger He'll pro - tect thee, and crown thy years with peace and grace.
Why should we grieve for each to - mor-row? Why thus be - gin and end our years?
in His un - fail - ing love con - fid - ing, take what His gra - cious hand hath sent;

He doth not build up - on the sand who trusts in God's al - migh - ty hand.
Our sighs and sor - rows but in - crease our bur - dens, and dis - turb our peace.
to God who chose thee as His own thy ev' - ry need and care is known.
