

Whiskey You're the Devil [C]

Jerry Barrington 1873

Oh now, brave boys, we'll run for march, and not to Por - tu - gal or Spain, the drums are beat - ing, ban - ners fly, the devil at home we'll find to - night, Oh

Love, fare thee well, with me ti - ther - ee - i doo - dle - um - a day, with me ti-ther-ee-i doo-dle-um-a day, My right-ful to - ra - lad - die o, there's whis-ky in the jar.

Whis - ky you're the dev - il, you're lead-ing me a-stray, o - ver hills and moun-tains and to A-me - ri - cay. You're strong - er, sweet - er, de - cent - er, you're punk-i - er than tay, Oh, whis - ky you're my dar - ling drunk or so - ber.
